

May News

May 1st-4th

This week we will continue to talk about the weather and introduce the letter T!

Events

May 8th - PALS testing starts

May 8th - PTKS meeting at 6 p.m.

May 29th - Memorial Day
No School!

Reminders

We will be starting our last PALS testing on May 8th! Keep practicing your letters and letter sounds!

Make sure to return your library books with your bags!

Learning Focus

This week we will be reading "A Rainbow of My Own" by Don Freeman and "It Looked Like Spilt Milk" by Charles Shaw

This week, the dramatic play center will be turned into a weather station, we will be performing different science experiments about clouds and rainbows. We will also be on the hunt for different weather words that we can find and write down.

