

September News

September 26th – 29th

This week we will be talking about what it means to be a Bucket Filler! A Bucket Filler is someone who is kind, encouraging, and makes good choices. Be sure to ask your child how he or she can "fill someone's bucket" this week!

Events

September 26th – PALS testing starts

October 5th – Culvers Night

October 6th – Please return conference time preference sheet!

October 12th – Popcorn Day

Reminders

Thank you to all the families who have made the switch to Ms. Conner's afternoon class! If you are still interested in joining us in the PM session, please let us know right away!

We will be sending home a Conference time sheet. Please mark ALL available times you can meet!

Learning Focus

I can listen and do.

I can talk about or show how I am feeling.

Story: Have You Filled a Bucket Today? By Carol McCloud
In Large Group we will be making a chart about good choices and bad choices and how they make us feel.

In Small Groups we will be working on PALS testing

In Art we will get a chance to paint with water colors!
We will also be working on sorting colors and counting in the Sensory Table.
